

CITY OF MIAMI VOTER GUIDE

A Nonpartisan Resource by the Coconut Grove Spotlight

About the 2025 City of Miami Elections

General Election — November 4, 2025

Miami voters will elect the Mayor and City Commissioners for Districts 3 and 5, and vote on four Charter Amendment questions.

If no candidate receives more than 50% of the vote, a runoff election will follow.

For the latest list of qualified candidates and ballot updates, visit the City of Miami Elections Homepage →

Key Deadlines & How to Vote

Vote-by-Mail

Ballots are now arriving in voters' mailboxes—it is too late to request a VBM ballot.

Return your ballot early by mail or at a secure drop box. See drop-off options.

Your ballot must be received, not postmarked by 7 p.m. Tuesday, November 4 to count.

You can track your ballot (to confirm it's been received and accepted) here →

You can still vote in person if you prefer—bring your VBM ballot to polling place to surrender it.

Early or In-Person Voting

Verify your polling place or find early-voting sites. Early voting dates are:

Weekends: October 25–26 and November 1–2, 8 am–4 pm

Weekdays — October 27–31, 7 am–7 pm

Miami-Dade Elections – Voter Information & Services →

Preview Your Ballot

See exactly what's on your ballot and review candidates and questions before you vote.

View Sample Ballots →

Need election help?

Call 305-499-VOTE (8683) or visit miamidade.gov/elections for ballot tracking/polling sites/assistance.

This voter guide is nonpartisan and provided for informational purposes only.

